WWII, metal rationing in SB	POST
WWII, rationing	HAENSZEL
WWII, air raids	WEISMEYER
YMCA, depression years	JENSEN

Please note: This is not an “every-name” index and should be used primarily as a guide to access the various topics covered in the oral histories. I have attempted to include subjects of special import or interest and have omitted numerous repetitious accounts as well as subjects not pertaining to the local community. As an example, almost every single interviewee living at that time in San Bernardino discussed the Flood of 1938. I have limited the list of names to those who contributed the most detail.

Each oral history has something of interest to offer, and the reader should not be limited by this index to discover the treasured accounts each participant was kind enough to share.
